concert saloon. TEMPERANCE HALL .- Explanation of spiritual manifestations by Prof. Wallace.

WASHINGTON THEATER .- "The Rag Picker of New York" and "Faint Heart never won Fair Lady," G. C. Boniface and Mrs. 1. B. Phillips in prominant characters.

IMPROVEMENTS .- At the Baltimore depot the company are making some improvements which will greatly tend to the convenience of the public. At present our merchants in inquiring after freight are obliged to make their way through the yard to the lower end of the building to the freight office or over the plat-form, and the present office of the agent, Mr. Koonts, with the telegraph office, are also out of the way. Three new offices are being ereced near the gate to the platform, one for the agent, the other for the tonnage and the third for the telegraph. By this arrangement persons transacting business at the depot will find all the officers under the same roof, and the telegraph office being in connection with all parts of the country it will be invaluable to the public. These offices while adding greatly to the facilities of the public will be quite orna-

Affairs in Georgetown.

GEORGETOWN COUNCILS, May 12th .- Board of Aldermen .- No quorum present. Common Council.-Present-Messrs. Thomas Hyde, Forrest, Kelly, Edes, Craig, Stake, Fowler, Bronaugh, and Mitchell.

A communication was presented from the street commissioner asking an appropriation of $1,000 for the repair of the lower and upper roads leading to the chain bridge; referred to the committee on streets. The bills of G. Crandle and Hudson Taylor, for stationery, were presented and referred to the committe on claims.

A petition from Walter Godey for permission to place a platform scale, for weighing ice, in front of his premises, south of the canal, was referred to the street committee. A communication from S. M. Waters & Bro., offering to tap the water mains at $2.50 per tap, was referred to the water committee. Also, from R. Cruit & Son, offering to pay $25 per annum for permission to enclose a portion of Montgomery street, near his premises;

Also, from the agent of the Heward Fire Insurance Co, of Baltimore, offering to insure the new market house for 39 cents on the $100; referred to the market house committee. . The petition of J. R. Ridgely, asking the remission of a fine, was referred to the grievance committee. Bills to remove the pump from the pavement in front of Peter Dill's; to pay the claims of J. G. Waters, R. W. Dukebart, Adams Express Co., the Chronicle and National Republican; and paying to the street commissioner $272 77 for the settlement of bills due for work and material in repair of streets, were reported from committees and laid over for one week under Resolutions instructing the committee on pumps to inquire into the propriety of letting out the repairs of pumps by contract; instruct. ing the committee on streets to inquire into the best means for using the small fund in hand for the repair of streets; instructing the market-house building committee to devise a plan and ascertain the cost of furnishing the hall of the new market house with substantial moveable seats; appointing a committee (Messrs. Craig, Hyde and Mitchell) to confer with the butchers concerning their objections to occupying the new market-house; and appointing a committee (Messrs. Thomas, Mitchell and Craig) to act in conjunction with the Mayor in preparing an eulogy on the late President, Mr. Lincoln, were adopted.

Mr. Hyde, from the market-house committee, to which was referred the proposed new rules for the government of the market house, reported back a substitute, which was read the second time, amended, and laid over till next

The substitute as amended provides that the sale of stalls advertised for the 22d of May shall be conducted under the supervision of the Mayor, who shall have the right to reserve a bid in each case, if in his judgment the stalls should sell too low.

The butcher, huckster, butter and country stalls shall be sold for a period of ten years, at an annual rent, payable half-yearly in advance, of $40 for each single stall, and $80 for each double stall.

No stall, after the regular sale, shall be sold for a period less than six months, and for all sales for that period the rent shall be $5 per month. In all cases where the rent is not paid within ten days after its falling due, the stall shall be forfeited to the corporation.

All stalls shall be numbered, and if any stall is not used for a period of thirty consecutive days, it shall also be forfeited.

The market house shall be open daily except Sundays, and from the 1st of April to the 1st of October shall close at 10 a.m., and at 11 a.m. for the rest of the year. It shall also be open from 3 to 9 p.m. Saturdays. The exposure for sale of unwholesome meats or vegetables is prohibited, as are also smoking in the market house, posting placards upon or otherwise defacing the walls. The Market Master shall have supervision of the market house, with the exception of the hall and ante-rooms in the second story, which for the time being shall be under the control of the market house building committee. The purchase of any article for sale again, except live stock, during market hours, is prohibited, and none but those licensed as green grocers shall be allowed to sell fresh meat or fish outside the market house. The Mayor is also authorized to sell the stands in the fish market over the canal till the 1st of

The committee on grievances was discharged from the further consideration of the petition of Thomas Woodward, asking to be excused from paying taxes so long as the Corporation of Georgetown is in debt to him for Coroner's fees; and the Board adjourned.
